

Registers

Published: 13.10.2020.

In order to carry out commercial activity in one or several areas of construction, as well as in the area of architecture or energy, the merchant shall register with the Register of Construction Merchants, submitting information regarding all the building specialists employed on the basis of an employment contract.

The Register of Construction Merchants is available here:

Requirements of the Register of Construction Merchants, details and forms to be submitted to the Register are available here.

Building specialists are persons who have acquired the right to an independent practice in the field of architecture, construction or energy in regulated professions. Information on building specialist's right to an independent practice (certificate of a building specialist) is included in the Register of Building Specialists.

The Register of Building Specialists is available here.

Construction control shall be performed by the building inspectors of a building authority, a body which fulfils the functions of a building authority and the State Construction Control Bureau — persons employed at the relevant bodies, who have obtained the right to an independent practice in the field of architecture or construction and are registered with the Register of Building Inspectors.

The Register of Building Inspectors is available here.

Requirements for registration with the Register of Building Inspectors are available here.

<https://www.em.gov.lv/en/registers>